Wed 3 May to Wed 10 June, and

Wed 12 August to Wed 16 September

Phoenix Art is made possible with the support of Pine Street Creative Arts Centre and City of Sydney.

While every effort is made to deliver proposed programs, workshop plans may be altered or cancelled in the event of insufficient registrations or other significant unforeseen circumstances.

Details at www.bgf.org.au when available.

Times: 10:00 am to 12:00 pm

Venue: Darlington Studio
Cnr Shepherd and Ivy Sts
Darlington (see map on back)

Artist & Coach: Jane Caveney

Cost: $35 includes all materials

Starter Kits: Are provided to new participants only

Jane has been an exhibiting artist for 15 years in Sydney and NSW. She has created and run youth workshops, art classes and community educational projects, using art, environmental sustainability and recycling as the major themes. For many years Jane has enjoyed working with the Mascon festival from running workshops to designing posters.

- Phoenix Art workshops are open to all people living with HIV who reside in NSW.
- One session per course will be held at the Art Gallery of NSW.
- All participants are invited to show their work in an exhibition at Kings Cross Library in November/December 2015.

“If you hear a voice within you say ‘you cannot paint’, then by all means paint, and that voice will be silenced.”
