

bobby goldsmith foundation
practical emotional financial support

Funding Development Manager

An exciting and challenging opportunity exists for a dynamic self starter who is results driven to join this well established charity that is committed to providing practical, emotional and financial support to people living with HIV/AIDS.

Reporting to the CEO, and working in collaboration with the Communications Manager you will be responsible for developing, implementing and managing sustainable fundraising and sponsorship strategies across New South Wales.

The successful applicant will have strategic and operational capabilities in the areas of donor acquisition and retention, annual appeals, regular giving programs, major partnerships, special events and public relations.

This role requires a passionate, driven individual with strong interpersonal and relationship management skills with an ability to engage with broad range of stakeholders.

The ideal candidate will have exceptional time management, strong attention to detail and possess superior communication skills. Tertiary qualifications or relevant experience in the not for profit sector is essential.

A packaged salary is available for this position ranging from $78k to $95K.

For further information including a position description please visit our website www.bgf.org.au

Please send an application that addresses the selection criteria to bev.lange@bgf.org.au by 16 July 2010, telling us why you are the ideal candidate.